

Common Boneset

Eupatorium perfoliatum

Growing Information

- Sunlight: Full to part sun
- Soils: Sandy to clay, needs consistent moisture
- Bloom Time: White flowers from June, July, August
- Size 3-6ft in height, 2ft spread

Use in border and wildflower gardens, around banks of a pond, wildflower meadow, pollinator garden, rain garden. Useful in habitat restoration projects.

Garden Companions

Dense Blazing Star (Liatris spicata), Joe Pye Weed (Eutrochium maculatum), Mistflower (Conoclinium coelestinum)

Nature Benefits

- Pollinator magnet. Butterflies and bees are attracted to the flowers.
- Host plant for caterpillars of the Lined Ruby Tiger Moth (Phragmatobia lineate), Burdock Borer Moth (Papaipema cataphracta), Three-lined Flower Moth (Schinia trifascia).

Natural Habitat

Occurs in marshes, swamp margins, stream banks, and shores of rivers or lakes.